

K-Love radio impacts many people. I support them financially each month because they provide a positive service for my family by providing wholesome, Christian values and great music. Please do not displace them with an LPFM. Very few things on tv and radio can be described as having a positive impact on society. K-Love changes lives.